

Outlook keeps asking for a password even if you already gave it one

Sometimes Outlook keeps asking for your password (or network password), even if you choose the "save password" option.

This is a known bug with their product. Microsoft suggests to follow the steps described in this article Save password setting not retained in Outlook or Outlook Express

Please follow their recommendations, or use a different email reader if you cannot resolve the problem.

Related articles

- How do I change my cPanel Password?
- I can't receive email, but I can send it
- Password Protect Your Website
- Thunderbird - whitelist email from GlowHost
- About email forwarding