How do I change my page layout?

There are nine different layout options to choose from, and you can start with a blank page, or use a preset layout with drop zones to give you greater control over your content.

You can also use the same layout for your whole site, or a different one on each page.

To access the various layouts, please go to Page > Layout.

Related articles

- How do I use the horizontal line widget?
- How do I use the column divider widget?
- How do I set the space between my columns?
- How do I change the order of the Navigation menu?
- How do I change my page layout?